British Cabinet Crisis Move Complicated

BRAZOS COUNTY'S BIG POULTRY SHOW IS OPEN

The Big Show Opened This Morning and was Thronged With Visitors all Day—Bryan and Brazos County Exhibitors Predominate but Others Here From a Distance—H. B. Savage of Belton the Official Judge.

The second annual meet of the Brazos County Poultry Show opened on schedule time this morning in the Wagner building, corner 26th street and Bryan avenue. A finer lot of chickens was scarcely ever exhibited in Texas and some of them are as fine as any ever shown anywhere.

The coops are arranged around the walls of the building and through the center, making them easy of access and making it easy for the visitors to get a good view of them.

The show is being held under the direction of President C. E. Jenkins, assisted by J. M. Spreckelmeyer, with Secretary J. T. Lawler looking after the details.

The majority of the exhibitors are Bryan and College people, yet there are quite a few entries from other places in Texas. The Eagle is also glad to note that several Brazos coun-

FORMING NEW CABINET IS UP TO LLOYD-GEORGE

The Only Man Available for the Work After Declination of Bonar Law—No Marked Changes Have Taken Place on any Front—The Rumanians Still Being Pressed Back but Bucharest Has not Fallen—Six Thousands Russians Were Captured.

BUCHAREST FALLEN

BERLIN, DEC. 6.—BUCHAREST HAS BEEN CAPTURED, IT IS OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED.

London, Dec. 6.—The Westminster Gazette says Andrew Bonar Law has declined the king's invitation to form a cabinet, and that presumably David Lloyd-George will be called on.

The Exchange Telegraph Company says it has authority for the statement that Law has declined to offer his services to form a new government.

The king has sent for Lloyd-George, whose action led to the disruption of the coalition government and the resignations of Premier Asquith. Whether he would have any greater success in forming a ministry than Bonar Law is the question unanswered. Political correspondents predict that Asquith will be back at the head of the government in a few days.

Spanish Steamer Sunk.

London, Dec. 6.—The Spanish steamship Uribarte is reported to have been torpedoed. The crew was landed.

Would Not Force Greece.

Rome, Dec. 6.—The allies do not desire to force Greece into the war, nor do they support any anti-dynasty movement in Greece, asserted Premier Boselli of Italy in his report on the war delivered before the chamber of deputies. He reiterated the determination of Italy to maintain the war with her allies until the restoration of Belgium, Serbia and Montenegro was accomplished. He termed this "the noble and essential object of the war."

Sofia Names Conditions.

Amsterdam, Dec. 6.—Premier Radostavoff of Bulgaria announces Sofia will follow the example of her allies and mobilize labor for production of munitions, according to a Sofia dispatch. The premier is quoted as saying: "Nobody dreams of peace until the allies are chased out of the Balkans and until Russia has abandoned forever her hope of capturing the Turkish straits."

American Ship Sunk.

New York, Dec. 6.—The steamship John Lambert, listed as American, was shelled and sunk without warning by a German submarine off the Isle of Wight on November 22nd, according to American members of the crew who arrived today from Bordeaux.

The submarine made its presence known by firing a shell through the bridge, and the firing continued during the time the crew were taking to the life boats. Twelve shots in all were fired. Engineer Harrison of the Lambert said. The crew was in the life boats twelve hours, rowing to the French coast and that in the meantime they saw the submarine attack and sink two unidentified vessels, a steamship and a bark.

Captured 6,000 Russians.

Berlin, Dec. 6.—The Russians failed in new assaults yesterday in the Carpathian forests north of Tartar Pass and on the Ludova, the war office says. In the Trotus valley the Russians reached the German second positions north of Oltus Pass. A Russian point of support was captured.

Von Mackensen's forces have advanced, causing the Rumanians to evacuate positions north of Sinax. South of Bucharest the Teutons occupy other towns along the River Alt and are advancing toward the Rumanian capital. More than six thousand Rumanians were captured yesterday.

Franco-Serbian Advance.

Paris, Dec. 6.—The Franco-Serbian forces progressed further on the Macedonian front and 125 prisoners were taken yesterday. A violent artillery engagement is in progress north of Monastir.

Allies Repulsed.

Sofia, Dec. 6.—The repulse of an allied attack in Moglenia valley east of the Cerna, was officially reported.

Quiet on French Front.

London, Dec. 6.—On the Franco-Belgian front nothing occurred but intermittent firing in the Ancre area, it was officially stated.
